

The Regional Champion Braxton County Eagles head to the West Virginia Boys Basketball State Championship in Charleston this Wednesday.

Eagles headed to boys' state basketball tourney

By Shirley Shuman

In last Thursday's regional game, Braxton outscored Moorefield 42-35 to earn a trip to the state tournament. The Eagles' first game of the 2022 tourney will be Wednesday against St. Marys. Game time will be 7:15. This is Braxton's first time for this accomplishment since 2018. That trip, too, was under Coach Josh Lunceford. Eagles' coach Josh Lunceford commented that the game against Moorefield was low-scoring "because neither team shot very well." Braxton led through most of the game, but Moorefield came up to take the lead late in the game. Coach Lunceford explained his team's ability to take the win. "We pressured and forced a bunch of turnovers at the end of the game," he said. The coach focused on D.J. Coomes' contribution to the win. "D.J. played really well. He had 17 points, and 11 of them came in the fourth quarter. He also played good defense," he said. Coomes had a perfect 11 for 11 performance at the free throw line. In addition to Coomes' 17 points, Spencer Bosely added 2, Lane Marrow 3, William Forbush 8, Beau Liston 6, and Mason Abraham 6. "Our whole team played a good game," Coach Lunceford added. "They followed the game plan, played good defense, and rebounded well." The team was 16 for 20 at the line. Looking forward to Wednesday night's game against St. Marys, the Eagles' coach described St. Marys as "a really disciplined, well-coached team." He then noted that his team "has been playing a lot better and been following instructions." Coach Lunceford added, "If we play well, we'll be able to compete with them."

Rob Pecora honored for excellence in basketball officiating

By Shirley Shuman

During halftime at a recent girls' state tournament game, the National Federation of High School Athletics presented Rob Pecora with a plaque naming him NFHS Girls Basketball Official of 2020-2021. Well-known to Braxton Countians for his years of experience in the school system, Pecora has officiated for "28 to 30" years. The former teacher and coach still officiates both girls' and boys' basketball. His first officiating, he explained, came after he had quit coaching. Still teaching at Flatwoods Elementary School, Pecora made an unusual move as far as officiating was concerned. His first work on the basketball court came in officiating West Virginia conference college games. He explained that he was "one of only a very few basketball officials who were hired for college officiating without ever having experience in working high school games."

Pecora officiated college men's games for the first 12 years, then switched to girls' games for 10 years. For most of that time, he also officiated both boys' and girls' games. Here he explained, "I usually did two or three college games a week, and the rest were high school." Most weeks he worked Monday through Saturday, six games a week. After commenting on the length of some of the trips, he said, "Probably the hardest part of officiating is the traveling." Then he added, "You get used to it." One of the reasons Pecora enjoys officiating is that he, a former coach, is still involved with athletes. "That's the best part of the job," he said, indicating that the association makes the trips and the late nights worthwhile. He has given up officiating college games, but he currently works "about 60 games a year, four or five a week." Along with his work as a game official, Pecora gave much to Braxton County schools. Now retired after 32 years of teaching—all of it in this county, he began at Sutton Middle School, where he was head football coach and assistant basketball coach. When John Carson moved to the high school to coach, Pecora became head basketball coach at SMS. After consolidation, he spent the remainder of his teaching career at Flatwoods Elementary. Although he is retired, Rob Pecora remains busy. He has had several positions, including manager of the Sutton swimming pool. However, he truly enjoys his current position as bailiff at the Braxton County Court House. "I really enjoy it," he said, "especially since I'm still around people." It also allows him plenty of time to continue his officiating. As a matter of fact, he will officiate in the upcoming WV boys' state basketball tournament.

BCHS students (L to R) Mark Byerly, Wyatt Dennison, and Eliza Keener represented Braxton County in the Regional Math Field Day.

Mark Byerly places 1st in BCCHS Math Field Day

By Shirley Shuman

Twenty-three students participated in the 2022 Math Field Day at Braxton County High School Mark Byerly, a sophomore, earned first place in the competition. Administered and scored by science and math instructor Dr. Ethan Backus, this year's event covered two days, Feb. 22 and 24 and was limited to students in grades 9-12. Students who placed in the top 10 will receive trophies at a later Board of Education meeting. The top 10, beginning with Byerly, included Braxton Bender (10th grade), second place; Eliza Keener (12th grade), third place; Samuel Kennen (12th grade), fourth place; Dalton Hardway (12th grade), fifth place; Bryson Spell (12th grade), sixth place; Heidi Payne (11th grade), seventh place; Madison Fayette, Duffield (11th grade), eighth place; Wyatt Dennison (10th grade), 9th place, and Dezirae Frazee (11th grade), 10th place. Byerly, Keener, and Dennison participated in Region 4 Math Field Day held on W V U Tech's campus in Beckley. Dr. Backus explained that these three were the only Braxton placers who chose to compete in the regional event. Along with Braxton's three students, the competition included students from Pocahontas, Greenbrier, and Nicholas. Byerly finished fifteenth at the regional competition. As such, he is the fifth alternate for the state math field day.

Sutton Councilwoman Marsha Lloyd resigns

The Sutton Town Council conducted their most recent meeting on March 10. During the meeting, the council approved to accept the resignation of Marsha Lloyd as council member. Council unanimously approved Jonathan Crum to fill her position. He will appear before Judge Richard Facemire on Monday, March 14 at 2:30 pm to be sworn in. Jason Boggs will also be sworn in at that time as a town police officer. Mayor JD Hoover reported that the Municipal Court is now up and running. He also noted the construction of the new secure offices for law enforcement had been completed by S&S

Improvements. Council members discussed the changes to fees listed in the ordinances. The fees have not been updated since 1989. The new fees are out for public review and comment in the Mayor's office. The new fees will be considered for approved during the March 24 regular meeting. Updating the fees will allow for proper assessment during Municipal Court as court costs set by the state have changed. Executive Clerk Robin Smith informed council that according to the state auditor's office, the town has to allow credit card payment as an option for fines and court costs. Those fees were added to the new fees out for review. Steve Facemire updates. Please turn to SUTTON page 3

Jesse Flint, #9, names interesting classes

By Shirley Shuman

Jesse Flint, son of Jamie and Katie Flint, indicated that he enjoys attending school, but he has found two of his classes really interesting. As his favorite class, he chose Civics. He also greatly appreciated Eagle Experience. Explaining his reasons for choosing J. D. Drake's Civics class as his favorite, Flint said, "The teacher is good at relating to all of us. The class is also about modern events, what's going on around us." His reasons for liking Eagle Experience, which Chris Locke teaches, is similar. "It's the only class I've had in high school that taught me

Let's generate energy here...

Dear Editor
Last week, Senator Joe Manchin called on the Biden administration to ban crude oil imports from Russia in a push toward energy independence. In his words:

"The entire world is watching as Vladimir Putin uses energy as a weapon in an attempt to extort and coerce our European allies.... The United States can and must ramp up domestic energy production and increase access to our abundant resources and technologies to both protect our energy independence and support our allies around the globe."

Senator Manchin is exactly right. As geopolitical tensions rise and energy prices continue to climb higher, the world is looking to America for energy leadership and stability. Instead, the administration continues to restrict access to America's oil and natural gas resources, and legal and regulatory uncertainty is weakening U.S. production and endangering our national security. Most pressing, our current offshore leasing program is set to expire on July 1, and the Biden administration is well behind

Facemire seeks seat on County Commission

I am Ronald L. (Ron) Facemire. I am a candidate for Braxton County Commission. I was a Braxton County Commissioner from 2013 thru 2018. After leaving office, I have served on different boards in the county. I am now on the Holly Gray Park Board, The Economic Development Authority Board, the CAEZ Board in Clay representing Braxton County, and the Little Kanawha Parkway Board.

Within the CAEZ and the Economic Development Authority, we have worked to open the Rail Trails and the Elk River Trail for recreation. Working on the Holly Gray Park Board, we have kept the park open and did improvements even though the past two years with COVID, there has not been much money coming in. We are working to get grants and income to improve the park.

If elected, I will work hard with all of the people in Braxton County to make Braxton a better place to work, live and enjoy. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

Just look at this!

News from our Capitol

by Delegate Brent Boggs

As I write this Sunday afternoon, the final day – day 60 of the Second Regular Session of the 85th West Virginia Legislature – ended in the early morning hours of Sunday morning, March 13. Although all legislative business ended at midnight, all the other pending business concluded after the time changed at 2 AM, so I'm still somewhat bleary-eyed as I type. The heavy snowstorm on Friday night caused many legislators and staff that commute finding difficult travel conditions on Saturday morning. At one point, a portion of I-79 was closed between Wallback and Amma, due to several severe accidents. With Rt. 4 also blocked for a time from fallen trees, Speaker Hanshaw was caught in the closure.

As was predicted, the House and Senate agreed to a State budget, but not without controversy in the House by members of both parties. For reasons I fail to understand, the final agreed-to version of SB 250 was obscured by a lack of transparency when questions were raised about the specific changes between the House and Senate versions. For nearly two weeks, I asked for information that was traditionally available to Finance Committee members, only to be provided a verbal list of the changes, which in a 200-plus page document, can be challenging and difficult to accurately brief non-Finance Committee members. Compounding the problem was the "revenue readjustment letter" from the Governor, not made available to members until one day before the session ended.

When members of both parties attempted to ask questions and reconcile differences in the two documents, including how the determination was made on the changes, the questions set off a series of questions being deflected and answering questions with questions. This isn't acceptable. At one point, a legislator not on the Finance Committee simply asked for a side-by-side spreadsheet of the areas of disagreement between the House and Senate versions and the final figures. One senior majority party leader refused the request and told the member to get a copy of both versions and go through them page by page, line by line and figure out the differences for herself. All this after a 13-hour day, at 10 pm the night before we were to vote on the budget less than 12 hours later.

The process was called out by members of both parties on Saturday morning. We finally did get a somewhat improved explanation of changes on Saturday, with the Speaker acknowledging that there could be some validity in concerns and that changes may need to be adopted in the future. I appreciate his looking at this objectively and I trust he will follow through on a more transparent process.

I hope the budget process gets reformed and returns to the budget conference process. Keeping the budget conferees in Charleston for two or three days of after the session financial reconciliation makes sense. It involves House and Senate staff and about a dozen conference committee members holding open meetings and then providing a thorough briefing for all members called back before a final vote. It allows an opportunity for everyone to clearly understand their yes or no vote. Most important, it can glean more in savings than the current non-public agreement between the two finance chairmen.

Is there a better way or one that is a hybrid of the process of the last few years? Maybe. Whatever the outcome next year and beyond, members and the citizens they represent deserve access to better, more accessible information regarding how spending priorities of government are determined.

My greatest concern with the budget lies with the spiraling uptick in spending. The bottom line of the general revenue budget is relatively flat from last year at about $4.7 billion, the budget contains spending in the "surplus section" at over $1 billion. Some of this funding is for valid reasons but a large portion seems to be set aside for unknown reasons. Since a sizable portion of the legislation seems to benefit the eastern panhandle, I'll be watching to see how much is carried back to a handful of counties and the expense of the others that are truly hurting economically. Sadly, an amendment I offered to provide a one-time $1,000 stipend to state retirees and educators was defeated. Also, vital volunteer fire life lessons," he said. "What I learned in there has stuck with me."

Flint's favorite teacher is Jerry Frame. "Mr. Frame always has a good attitude, and when we need help, he gives it to us," he said.

Among his school activities are baseball and serving as vice president of the senior class. He's a varsity outfielder for the Eagles' baseball team. Also, he mentioned the pep rallies they've had at school as what he thinks he'll remember the most. Outside school, Flint enjoys hanging out with friends, hunting and fishing. He added, "I also really enjoy working with Papaw building stuff." Roger Flint is his grandfather.

Discussing the pandemic and the effect it had on his education, Flint responded, "It had a drastic effect. I'm a very hands-on person. I need to be in the classroom to learn. Distance learning is very difficult for everyone. You just don't learn very much." Jesse Flint hasn't decided where he will attend college although he's pretty sure it will be a West Virginia college. He does know, however, that he wants to major in health sciences. "I want to do something in the nursing field," he said.

dated council on work done on ditches and drains. Work is still being completed on the culvert cleaner to get it functioning properly.

He also discussed plans for the predicted snow storm. Town employees would be out salting intersections Friday evening and plans were in place for the plowing of streets Saturday.

Council discussed plans for concrete on the sidewalk on N. Fifth Street.

Beth Atkins asked about working on the parking meters. Robin Smith said she had spoken with a person in Weston to see if the ones they have removed recently were the same type. Police Chief Shane Boggs suggested speaking to Gassaway as well. Robin Dolan updated council on her ride along with Justin Meadows from the Department of Highways. Issues with state maintained roads will be able to be completed. Council discussed getting regrind from the DOH to fix issues on town maintained streets.

Chief Boggs introduced the new officer, Jason Boggs, to council members. He provided updates on the police department including the new decals on the cruisers, contract work with the Braxton County Sheriff's Department, and radios and radars received from the WVSP. The deputy contracted to work in Sutton will be out on patrol Friday night. Chief Boggs also stated one night soon multiple officers from different agencies will be out patrolling the town. He thanked both the BCSD and the WVSP in their assistance and willingness to work with him on getting the police department up and running.

He also discussed the recent Municipal Court hearings. Most individuals showed up for court and paid their fines. Chief Boggs state a couple of individuals did not show and certified letters would be sent out. He noted that any arrestable offense beyond basic traffic citations would be completed through Magistrate Court.

Steve Facemire stated work was being completed on the demolition of the old tractor trailer left in the dump. Once it is complete, the metal will be taken to Coffman's Metal.

Robin Smith updated the council on the front door replacement. She stated the door was scheduled to be in by the end of the month. Once it is received, the contractor would do the installation.

Mayor Hoover discussed a plan brought to him by Shane Brown for juvenile reform. Brown was unable to attend the meeting but hopefully can make a future meeting to discuss the program.

Recorder Laurel Petolicchio discussed the plans for road closures on June 25 for the WV Bigfoot Festival. On a motion by Steve Facemire, council approved to close Main Street from Second Street to Fifth Street allowing for traffic to come off Town Hill and continue onto Third Street to Riverview Drive and the closure of Fourth Street.

The council discussed the Sutton Community Development Corporation and their report at the last meeting of focusing on the Sutton Fall Festival. Beth Atkins stated she felt their intent was not to drop other projects. However, Steve Facemire and Mayor Hoover said it sounded like they would be focusing only on the Fall Festival. The Farmer's Market and the flower pots were mentioned by the SCDC as projects they would not be working on. Citizens are concerned if they will be in place this year and are willing to step forward to help with these projects if needed, especially since the season is quickly approaching. Council has a work session scheduled with the SCDC on March 15 and hopes for clarification.

Under regular business, council approved the minutes of the February 24 regular meeting, with corrections, and the March 1 work session on separate motions.

The payment of bills was approved by council members. Steven Facemire asked for a better description of items such as "equipment." Robin Smith stated the line item does not allow for a breakdown, but she does include that information in the memo of the listing. He also requested getting the balance sheet items updated and accurate. It was noted that the REIP truck would not be listed as town property until the grant expires in December 2022. Catherine Hoover asked about the payment to Casto & Harris. She was informed that was for updating the municipal court books. Council members also briefly discussed the budget being submitted to the state for approval.

Council approved the two construction permits submitted on a single motion.

At 7:17 pm, council went into executive session to discuss personnel. They reconvened at 7:38pm. The council approved the Mayor's recommendation of the suspension of a town employee.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:40 pm. The next regular meeting is March 24 at 6:00 pm.

schedule and highly unlikely to finalize a new leasing program by this deadline.

The current five-year offshore leasing program, established under the Obama administration, introduced the current guidelines for the federal government to engage in the offshore production of oil and gas. This program has been an essential component as the U.S. expanded its domestic production to become less reliant on foreign competitors.

Following President Biden's Executive Order directing a pause on this program, the current administration has yet to signal any intentions of establishing a new five-year program. This unprecedented development is set to restrict federal offshore lease sales, presenting a major threat to our domestic energy production.

The administration is fixated on reducing our domestic use of oil and gas in its commitment to reverse the course of climate change. Yet, ironically, the decision to end our current offshore leasing program will only exacerbate these current problems. U.S. production is among the lowest carbon barrels produced in the world, and by shifting our reliance more heavily toward foreign imports, this decision would boost greenhouse gas emissions.

As Senator Manchin

points out, this is already taking place. Each day, we import more than half a million barrels of crude oil from Russia for our own domestic use. When it comes to international security, it is paramount that President Biden and his administration value the importance of energy independence.

To meet this ambitious objective, states must work alongside the administration to reassert their commitment to domestic production. West Virginia continues to play a pivotal role in domestic energy production, but key regulatory improvements must be made to lead us toward energy independence. Investments in our mineral owners and a modernization to the tax code will make West Virginia more competitive in the global energy race.

By bolstering our natural gas and oil production with renewed support, West Virginia's leaders can renew the shift back to domestic energy leadership against our recent reliance upon unstable international adversaries. Unfortunately, this important goal will be unachievable if President Biden stands by the status quo that he instituted.

Sincerely,
Charlie Burd

Alan Weese

Tuesday, March 8, 2022, our rebel Angel, Alan Weese, gained his wings. With a grin from ear to ear, Alan took his last mortal breath after a long battle with cancer and ascended to the Heavenly Kingdom. There he was met by his parents, Dennis Randall and Ella Louise McIntyre Weese.

Alan was born November 28, 1965 in Gassaway, WV.

He is survived by his loving wife, Hope Weese; adopted daughters, Katy and Alicia (Mark); grandchildren, Maria, Randall, Michael, Chasity, Harmony and Alison; siblings, Dennis "PeeWee" (Cherri) Weese, DeeDee (Shane) Dean, Patty (John) Piasecki, Leslie (Kim) Weese; adopted siblings, Rodney, Doug, Jeff, Brad, Donald, Carolyn, and Dale; several nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

Alan had the biggest heart and spent most of his adulthood volunteering his handyman service to anyone who needed a helping hand. 10 years ago he showed up at the door of Encore in Gassaway and was a vital part of the daily operations ever since.

Following the generous nature of Alan, the family asks that in lieu of flowers, please make donations to your local Food Pantry or Hospice.

Good Intentions

We all have good intentions in life and it is a great thing to have good intentions, but if we do not act on them then what good are they, and can they help me? The answer is obviously no they cannot help us, it is only when we put them into practice can we expect them to help.

Matt 7:21-8:1

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

God says in this passage that it only we put our intentions to work according to what God has told us can we enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Examples:

1 Sam 15:1-24

King Saul was told by the Prophet to go and utterly destroy the Amalekites which is what God wanted him to do.

1 Samuel also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

Saul's good intentions

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

Saul's good intentions was not according to the word of God and because he failed God. God rejected him from being king.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.

Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

UZZAH 2 Sam 6:1-10

Uzzah also had good intentions in trying to steady the Ark and he put forth his hand to steady it and immediately he was struck dead by God, Why we ask, it was because God had instructed them not to touch the Ark. It may seem like a small thing to us that Uzzah's intentions was only to keep the Ark from falling, but it was a big thing to God because he instructed them not to touch the ark, Uzzah's life was taken because he did not obey the voice of God.

FELIX Acts 24:22-26

Felix also had good intentions but he never put them into practice and we never read where he ever acted on his intentions

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess.

he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

The words and as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance and judgment to come are some soul searching words that we need to heed, one day we will stand before God and we will have to account of our life, will it be then that we hear the words, depart from me because we never put our good intentions to practice.

It doesn't matter what I think or what I feel, it only matters if I do what God says according to his word 21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Matt 7-21-8-1

COUNTY STORIES

RIFFLE

Is It Summer Or Winter

One day this past week it got up to 70 degrees and that night it went down to 3. A winter storm blew across the country and Saturday we got up to 7 inches of snow and only 10 degrees. By evening we had 8 inches of snow and deep drifts. Our dog had a ball eating snow and dancing on hind legs to catch snow flakes in his mouth. We put him in by the fire though on real cold nights. He can only come out when the sun warms things up a bit. His favorite food is deer droppings and snow. We feed him good and there is always a pan of fresh water in the garage for him. He prefers mud puddles and snow.

Our son called home from Michigan. They have had real cold weather too, but only 3 inches of snow and it melted off. Gas prices and groceries are getting high up there. It's ridiculous! I'm glad he and our granddaughter have good jobs so they can afford to drive back and forth from work and buy groceries. Some people are car pooling to save on gas money. I have seen jokes on FB of people posting a picture of a man on a horse and the caption was, "My new car." Go back to the old ways of getting around. We have a picture here of my husband's Riffle grandparents on Bear Fork, using a cow to get around on. They didn't have a horse. When I was growing up there were lots of men traveling the road on horses. It was a way of life. We also had the hobos on foot. Those would stop and ask for something to eat. It was the era of the hobos.

Hubby was telling me about the coal banks for free fuel to use in a pot belly stove. His Grandpa Riffle had a coal bank on the property that he was taking care of for Hunter

Bennett on Bear Fork.

A coal bank is where erosion has washed dirt away and coal is exposed. It gives people a place to start digging in an outcropping of coal. Grandpa put the coal on a sled and hauled it back to his cabin. He had a coal pile to go to and would round up the coal bucket and a shovel to get it into the little door of the stove. In later years he had to go get Charlie Perrine or someone with a big truck to take him to coal mines up above Glenville, to buy coal. After so many years of digging out of a coal bank, you have to stop or the hill would cave in on you. I hope everyone is well and looking forward to spring as we are. There is a bad virus going around now. That Rhinovirus is like a bad head cold. You can use home remedies and doctor is as you would flu or a cold. It isn't a variant of Covid. Until next time, may the Good Lord bless and keep you in his care.

The Annual Cinderella Project held on Saturday, March 19th

Formal wear donations are needed

Prom season is upon us, and WV Caring's Resale Shops are gearing up for its Annual Cinderella Project. This year it will be held Saturday, March 19 at 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM at all three of WV Caring's Resale Shops; Bellview, Burnsville and Reedsville, WV.

The Cinderella Project is a community outreach program that provides teen women with an affordable way to attend their high school prom. There are new and gently used prom and formal wear, clothing, shoes, accessories that have been donated. Dresses, shoes and handbags are $5.00 each. With everything you need to make your prom night special. Our prices have remained the same for years.

To ensure there is a full inventory of all sizes and kinds of formal attire, party dresses, shoes and accessories, donations are needed for this annual event.

"Sometimes we have individuals who need a certain size, and we try to accommodate them to make their day special," said, Kim Riley, Manager of Development and Volunteer Services. I've been doing this for a long time, and I want every young person to be able to get the outfit of their dreams without breaking the bank." Donations can be dropped off at the Resale Shops on regular donation days, which are Mondays and Thursdays and the local WV Caring offices through March 18th.

There are a few changes to this year's event. Individuals must be present during the sale from 12 PM to 2PM. Quantities are limited to two dresses per purchase and as always, all sales are final. After the event dresses will remain on sale through April.

Mask requirements will be consistent with state and CDC requirements at this time.

The Resale Shops are open Monday through Friday 9:30 AM - 4:00 PM, and Saturday 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM. If you have questions, please contact Jennifer McClelland at 304-864-0410, email her at jmccllelland.org or find us on Facebook.

Braxton County WIC announces addition flexibilities for WIC

West Virginia's Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) within the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources' Bureau for Public Health is announcing additional flexibilities for WIC participants following the recent recall of powdered infant formula manufactured at Abbott Nutrition's facility in Sturgis, Michigan.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announced an investigation into four complaints of infant illness related to products produced at the Sturgis, Michigan, facility from September 6, 2021 to December 18, 2021. Abbott issued a voluntary recall of powdered infant formula from Similac, Alimentum or EleCare and one lot of Similac PM 60/40.

If a WIC customer purchased baby formula included in the recall with WIC benefits, the product may be returned to the store where it was purchased for an exchange for the same product (not included in the recall), a liquid form of formula, a different size container or a different brand. Each store establishes their own return policy. WIC participants may contact their local WIC clinic if there are difficulties with store exchange.

An additional waiver granted from the USDA Nutrition Services allows flexibility in addressing the options of available formulas, expanding the brands of baby formula allowed for purchase with WIC benefits without the need for medical documentation. In addition to Similac, WV WIC will offer Enfamil and Gerber products as well as store private labels for a period of time. If a child has a special need for hypoallergenic formula, a medical prescription is still required.

"The West Virginia WIC Program applauds the retailer community's quick response during the pandemic-related nationwide supply chain issues that have been exacerbated by this recall," said Heidi Staats, Director of the Office of Nutrition Services. "Likewise, WIC Nutritionists are strongly discouraging parents from feeding their infants homemade formula while diligently sharing alternatives to recalled products and techniques for transitioning formula."

Additional information on the infant formula recall is available on the WV WIC website. To find a WIC clinic, visit <https://dhhr.wv.gov/WIC/Pages/Clinic-Search.aspx>.

WIC provides pregnant, breastfeeding, and postpartum women, infants, and children up to age 5 with nutritious, supplemental foods. The program also provides nutrition and breastfeeding education and referrals to health and social services. WV WIC builds its public health nutrition services from the backbone of the Dietary Guidelines for Americans.

The WIC program continues to offer virtual certification and benefit issuance, as well as virtual nutrition services and breastfeeding education.

First Energy Foundation grants the Pleasant Hill Waterline Association $5,000

Sharon West of Lowther Hollow, John Cobb, Green Hill Road, Eddie Williams Route 19 South, John Norman FirstEnergy, Manager External Affairs, and Brenda (Gabby) Gregory of Rabbit Hill Road at Lunch Wednesday to accept the Grant Check from FirstEnergy Foundation.

Several members of the Pleasant Hill Waterline Association (PHWA) Board met with FirstEnergy representative John Norman on Wednesday, March 9, 2022, to receive a five-thousand-dollar grant on behalf of over 150 families waiting to receive water. The non-profit organization (PHWA) has been working toward a new waterline in Northeastern Braxton County since January of 2018. This waterline will bring potable water to over 156 families on the north end of Braxton County past the Burnsville Lake and Bulltown campgrounds.

Gabby Gregory, Treasurer of PHWA, said of the grant, "This is absolutely an amazing company. The FirstEnergy Foundation is committed to helping the areas in which they operate. This grant is proof of that commitment and goes a long way in support of PHWA's mission to bring water Northeastern Braxton County." Continuing, Gregory added, "If you go to the FirstEnergy website, you will come across a segment titled 'Community Involvement: Bringing Good Energy to Our Communities'. I love that concept!

Helping others does bring good energy to the soul and here you have an energy corporation that is putting their efforts and money into our small community and helping a project that will change lives forever. We are so very grateful to FirstEnergy for this incredible gift."

FirstEnergy's commitment to our community and the relationship that developed with Mr. John Norman began in 2010 during a meeting that was called by Sharon West at a little church (The Fall Run United Methodist Church) to address power outages.

"It is interesting, noted John Cobb, Pleasant Hill Waterline Association President, that John Norman and Sharon West developed a positive working relationship that has also helped our rural community in another way.

Since back in 2010 many area residents were upset with the frequent power outages that were common at that time. It was then that FirstEnergy and Mr. Norman stated that they would improve the service in the area, and they have.

It was just two years after that initial community meeting with FirstEnergy, that our area experienced its first Derecho. That was June 29, and the 2012 Mid-Atlantic and Midwest derecho was one of the deadliest and most destructive fast-moving severe thunderstorm complexes in North American history.

The progressive derecho tracked across a large section of the Midwestern United States and across the central Appalachians into the mid-Atlantic states on the afternoon and evening of June 29, 2012, and into the early morning of June 30, 2012. It resulted in a total of 22 deaths, millions of power outages across the entire affected region, and a damage total of US $2.9 billion.

"Our area in Northeastern Braxton and Southern Lewis counties were hit especially hard and everyone's power was out for over 10 days, recalled Mr. Cobb, I lost not only power but a lot of valuable commercial timber."

It was at the meeting last Wednesday with John Norman that we learned that the derecho did have one good effect. That was the first time that FirstEnergy was able to get the WV Public Service Commission to acknowledge that there had to be funds applied to cutting dead trees along powerlines.

"So that's why I invited Sharon West to the meeting, said John Cobb so she and John Norman could chat with each other over lunch and reminisce about the times when we used to experience power outages for two or three days at a time. But not today as FirstEnergy has kept the powerlines free from dead fall for the most part and power outages now last hours instead of days. All thanks to Sharon West and John Norman.

So how did this meeting and the transfer of $5,000 from the FirstEnergy Foundation come about.

Well about three years ago, there was another meeting it was held between Mr. John Norman and former Braxton County Sheriff, Mr. Eddie Williams. Their discussion of their power company rights-of-way set the wheels in motion for PHWA to apply for a FirstEnergy Foundation grant in the amount of $5,000.

Working with Andrea Bortoluzzi, Consultant, Community Involvement at FirstEnergy and Mr. John

Norman, the PHWA submitted the application, and it was approved.

The FirstEnergy Foundation is funded solely by FirstEnergy Corporation and provides support to non-profit, tax-exempt organizations in areas served by FirstEnergy's 10 electric operating companies throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, West Virginia, Maryland, and New York. According to FirstEnergy's 2020 Community Impact Report, FirstEnergy Corporation has invested $100 million in the FirstEnergy Foundation since 2015. The report further explains that $7 Million was provided to nearly 1,600 organizations.

"Pleasant Hill Waterline Association President, John Cobb, Jr. stated, "We have requested grants from several local companies this year but this $5,000 from FirstEnergy puts us at $65,000 total raised since 2018 when we started our work on this waterline extension."

"Interestingly, after the meeting, I learned from Sharon West that she is interested in genealogy and is in fact related to Gabby our Treasurer's Mother-in-Law, Nettie Gregory through Nettie's late husband Ford Gregory. Sharon's brother George Hardman, Jr. was married to Jane Gregory, who was Ford's aunt", continued Cobb. "If I had known that I would have invited Nettie to the meeting as well."

What a small world as Nettie Gregory with her multiple yard sales over the past few years has helped the Pleasant Hill Waterline Association raise over $11,000 of its funds to date.", finished, Cobb.

The presentation of the grant on last Wednesday was a very exciting moment for PHWA Board Members. For those present and the entire 156 members of the Pleasant Hill Water Association, they know that FirstEnergy doesn't just talk the talk, they walk the walk and are committed to bringing good and reliable energy to Braxton County as well as helping our small community work towards getting potable water to our rural residents.

Dog Tales: County Animal Shelter

Are you looking to add a four legged, tail wagging member to your family? Rescues from the Braxton County Animal Shelter are looking for their final "Forever" homes and are anxious to meet you. There is a reason we call them man's best friend. We can learn so many things from a dog's behavior, personality, demeanor, resiliency, and most importantly, the willingness to provide their family members with unconditional love, loyalty, and companionship down to their very last breath. BCAS is open Monday through Friday from 10-3. There is no charge to surrender a dog, but donations toward their care are appreciated. Adoptions are $99.00 for male dogs and $119.00 for female dogs, and include spay/neuter, rabies vaccination, parvo/distemper vaccination, kennel cough vaccination, flea treatment and deworming. No dog will leave the shelter unfixed and we are very willing to work with reputable 501c3 rescues. Please call the shelter for vet pricing and ask for our adoption/rescue coordinator Megan at (304)765-2 picked up as strays in the Bee Run area. They are now available for adoption and searching for their forever homes. Both dogs are quiet in the shelter and very sweet dogs! They are affectionate and love all the attention they get. Both are great on a leash, clean in their kennel, dog friendly and we imagine they would be gentle with children as well.

How about these hound dog eyes?! This pretty lady Dahlia. She is a four year old female red tick weighing approximately fifty pounds. She is easy going, quiet in her kennel, walks well on a leash and gets along well with other dogs. Dahlia came to our shelter as a stray so we don't have any history on her but we know she's a gem.

This sweet little brindle girl who was brought into the shelter after being hit by a car in the Granny's Creek area is Rasha. She had a badly broken back right leg and was treated by our vet for some time. She is now all healed up and ready to find her forever family! Rasha is a little under one year old, around thirty to thirty-five pounds and will likely finish growing at around forty to forty-five pounds. She is a ball of playful energy but will play until she's tuckered out and roll over for belly rubs. Rasha would make an excellent playmate for another dog. Rasha is great at walking on a leash and a very smart girl overall. She could be taught so many things.

Bella is a four to five year old female (pink leash) and Beck, two to three year old male (yellow leash) were hours or give us a call to set up a meet and greet!

These 3 handsome dudes are Sam, Joe and Pete who are littermates looking for brand new homes. Their momma is a German Shepherd and we can't be sure about the daddy so they are listed as German Shepherd mixes. They are five months old (born July 13th) and will likely mature into big dogs. They have never lived indoors and are learning to walk on a leash but they are very smart and are learning quickly. These guys love to romp and play with each other and would do well with puppy siblings. They especially love a good tug of war with a rope and some belly scratches. Update: Sam (lightest brindle) has been adopted!

Braxton County Animal Shelter has been given the opportunity to provide five free dog spay surgery vouchers per month, to low-income Braxton County families. These vouchers may be obtained by completing a Spay Assistance Application, which can be picked up and submitted at the animal shelter during business hours. Vouchers will be good for 30 days. BCAS reserves the right to deny financial assistance for any reason. These free spay surgeries must be scheduled by the voucher recipient at Central WV Animal Hospital. This program has been fully sponsored by our rescue partner Awesome Paws Rescue of Buffalo, NY. This rescue has been an amazing asset to Braxton County for nearly five years, by pulling hundreds of dogs from our county and finding them their new forever homes. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts to the folks at Awesome Paws! Spaying female dogs is important because: It helps to reduce pet overpopulation, It can reduce aggression issues, It can reduce the chances of roaming dogs, It can lower the risk of cancer, It can increase lifespan three to five years. Update as of Monday, March 7th the Braxton County Animal Shelter has three vouchers available.

Robbins Nest Daycare celebrates two whole weeks of Dr. Seuss Days in recognition of Read Across America Day

Children in the three and four-year-old class colored and donned headbands to announce if they liked or disliked green eggs and ham.

From Wacky Wednesday to Top Hat Tuesday and Funny Food Friday to Snoozy "Thurzzzday," it's been a busy two weeks at the Robbins Nest Daycare as the children and staff celebrated Dr. Seuss Days.

March 2nd has long been recognized as Read Across America Day, launched in 1998 by the National Education Association. This special day honors the birthday of Theodor Geisel, the famous author better known as Dr. Seuss, who wrote and illustrated more than 60 books. With over 600 million copies sold, many of his books are some of the most popular children's books of all time. Nearly everyone in America can name at least one childhood favorite by Dr. Seuss, and the children at the Robbins Nest Daycare could likely now name nearly a dozen.

"Each day we focused on a different Dr. Seuss book. Our crafts, games, songs, and sometimes even our meals centered on the book for that day," Director and Owner Debbie Ellyson explained.

In addition, the center hosted spirit days for those two weeks.

"There were just so many fun spirit ideas that we couldn't contain it to just one week!" Ellyson said. Spirit week kicked off Feb. 28th with Mixed Up Monday. Kids wore clothes backwards and inside out and made sure nothing matched. Cat in the Hat, the most classic Dr. Seuss book, was read. All of the classes used hand and footprints to create spectacular Cat-in-the-Hat and Things 1 and 2.

Top Hot Tuesday was perfect to focus on Ten Apples Up On Top. Along with songs and games, the kids painted popsicle sticks and create A-shaped apples. March 2nd was Read My Shirt Day. Children wore shirts that others could read and parents sent special Seuss-themed treats for the afternoon reading ABC. March 3rd was a fan favorite, Pajama Day, with a focus on Horton Hears A Who. The older children made elephants while the two-year-olds made Tuttle Tuttle trees. The week culminated with Funny Food Friday. The children tried green eggs and ham and made headbands announcing if they did, in fact, like green eggs and ham, Sam-I-Am.

The second week started with Red and Blue Monday. Kids wore their favorite of the two colors while listening to One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish. They graphed the colors of their goldfish crackers and used their handprints to create fish bowls. March 8th children and staff dressed up as what they want to be when they grow up or wore their favorite college jersey as they focused on Oh, the Places You'll Go, a graduation gift classic. They painted hot air balloons and put photos of themselves in their balloon baskets. Fox in Socks and The Foot Book were the center of March 9th. The kids wore their craziest socks and created fox puppets. The also designed socks for their puppets.

March 10th was

Bring Your (Stuffed) Pet to Daycare Day. The little ones held their stuffed pets on their laps while staff read What Pet Should I Get. Special furry visitors stopped by, including Reuben, a black Labrador in therapy dog training, and a few kittens. The children chose which pet they preferred, then created their own dog or cat from paper plates.

Dr. Seuss Days ended March 11th as children and staff dressed as a Seuss character. From Cindy Lou Who to the littlest Grinch, the center was full of lively costumes as they watch How the Grinch Stole Christmas.

The infant room participated in the week's activities too. Thing 1 and Thing 2 were adorable!

Miss Tammy Rose poses as a cook with a few preschoolers on Career/College Day.

They were a little skeptical at first, but nearly all loved their green eggs and ham, Sam-I-Am.

Natalee Morris, age 3, and two-year-old teacher, Miss Becky Heater, pose as Cindy Lou Who and Thing 1.

The two-year-olds use photos and tissue paper to create hot air balloons after listening to All the Places

Affordable, Adoptable, Fixed Feline Friends

It happens. In a community with increasing numbers of senior citizens, it is inevitable that some of those caring for pets in their home will face declining health and a need to rehome those pets that have provided love and companionship for them.

This week, Just One Generation would like to feature three two year old cats that are in that situation.

All three have been spayed/neutered, but due to declining health of their caregiver, they need to be rehomed. These cats were born as two litters that arrived in close proximity back in 2020.

They have been indoor/outdoor, but are used to the quiet life. At this time, they are shy around those unfamiliar to them. But we know that with some time, patience, and love, that they can adapt to a new environment.

These cats are available at no charge to good homes. Anyone interested can contact the owner directly by calling Danny at 304-644-8322.

Braxton County students urged to use scholarship searches to find student aid

Braxton County students looking for money to help pay for technical training or college classes should take advantage of free online scholarship searches, according to KHEAA. With those resources, many students can find help to fund their education.

A good place to start is a national database provided by the U.S. Department of Labor at careeronestop.com. The link to the Scholarship Finder is under the Toolkit tab.

If you do use online searches, make sure you read the terms of use. Also, some sites will require you to opt out of receiving future promotional emails from colleges and their advertisers.

KHEAA is a public, non-profit agency established in 1966 to improve students' access to college. It provides information about financial aid and financial literacy at no cost to students and parents. KHEAA also helps colleges manage their student loan default rates and verify information submitted on the FAFSA. For more information about those services, visit www.kheaa.com.

In addition, KHEAA disburses private Advantage Education Loans on behalf of its sister agency, KHESLC. For more information, visit www.advantageeducationloan.com.

The Braxton County Eagles baseball team prepares for upcoming season.

Eagles baseball team opens Thursday with home game

In his second year at the helm of the BCHS baseball, Coach Jamie Lemon seems relatively optimistic about the upcoming season. Coach Lemon has eight returning players around which to build the team, and five of those are seniors with plenty of experience.

Senior returnees include catcher Kolton Kniceley, outfielder Tyler Stalnaker, shortstop Adam Dobbins, third baseman Isaiah Mowery, outfielder Beau Liston, along with junior second baseman Tyler Baldwin. Other returnees are sophomore Eli Ward at first and sophomore Braydon Helmick in the outfield.

his pitching staff "pretty strong, especially the top four." Those four are Tyler Baldwin, Dobbins, Mowery, and Kniceley, all of whom saw some success last season. Also set to see action on the mound are Liston, Logan Baldwin, and Ward.

Asked to name strengths he sees in this year's squad, Coach Lemon said that the team "is pretty solid defensively, especially up the middle and at catcher." He went on to say that his returning players hit pretty well in last Friday's scrimmage although he still questions the hitting overall. "I am confident in the older boys, though," he added.

Right now the weakness with which he is most concerned is the outfield defense especially since he lost last year's strong outfield players to graduation. "We have some question marks about positions in the outfield," Lemon said. Another weakness which he faces early in the season is that his younger boys need to see new pitchers. He indicated, however, that he's not overly concerned about that because that will come naturally as the season progresses.

"Overall," the Braxton coach summarized, "I think we'll have a pretty good season."

The Eagles are scheduled to play a doubleheader at Elkins Saturday and have three games coming up next week.

Sutton Public Library continues Cans For Canines BCAS fundraiser

Sutton Public Library would like to thank everyone for the continued support of our community project, Cans for Canines. This ongoing program encourages everyone to start saving and donating aluminum cans to the Sutton Public Library who will then deliver them to the recycling center. All funds are donated directly to the Braxton County Animal Shelter. Shelter staff has said that the funds have been a great help to pay for immunization supplies. If you are an individual or a company and would like to help support this wonder cause with a few cans a week or a truck load, just bring them by the library and leave them in the specially marked bins or large boxes on the parking ramp. The library does not have to be open for you to leave your donated cans.

The Sutton 4-H Club that meets monthly at the library will begin collecting cans to support this program and will provide additional help in sorting the cans to make sure we have just aluminum cans. We cannot take aluminum foil or steel soup cans. Those items are not accepted at the recycle location at this time.

The library is also looking for sponsors to match the money earned by one load or for the whole month. If you want to get involved in this worthwhile, environmentally friendly program, call the library at 304-765-7224. The next time you start to throw away a can, think about the animals at the shelter that could benefit from that can.

Braxton County High School students visit ongoing bridge construction Site

Mr. Lloyd's building construction students and Mr. Crow's engineering students got to take part in an amazing opportunity as they took a field trip to an active bridge construction site. Students were able to see concepts learned in the classroom first hand on the site. BCHS would like to thank Rock Forge Bridge company for making this opportunity possible and Eric Gregory for putting it all together. Community connections such as this, truly make a difference in our students. Photos courtesy of Eagles First Facebook Page.

BCHS engineering and building construction students visited a Rock Forge Bridge in Spencer where they saw how the work they recently finished has been used in real life. For the second year in a row, instructor Robert Lloyd's Carpentry I, II classes have completed an order for concrete panels to be used in construction of bridges in West Virginia. Their latest panels went straight to the Spencer bridge site.
