Sutton trio face drug charges

On Friday, March 25 local law enforcement officers attempted to serve a search warrant at 34 Camden Avenue in Sutton. Members of the Braxton County Sheriff's Department, Sutton Detachment of the West Virginia State Police and the Mountain Lakes Drug and Violent Crime Task Force were involved in the operation.

Deputies Andrew Groves, Cpl. Cleve Westfall and State Police Sgt. Andy Shingler of the Task Force had conducted controlled drug buys at the residents which resulted in Deputy Groves obtaining warrants for Britney M. McEvers, 33, Robert R. Jones, 31 and James A. Stewart, 63, that were being served along with the search warrant.

During the search of the residence, officers discovered to small bags of a white powdery substance believe to be a combination of fentanyl and methamphetamine, ten Suboxone strips, a container believed to be meth, a bag containing a green leafy substance and two hypodermic needles loaded with what was believed to be illegal drugs.

McEvers was charged on three counts of delivery of a controlled substance (heroin), and three counts of conspiracy. Stewart faces the same charges as McEvers. Jones is charge with two counts of delivery of a controlled substance and two counts of conspiracy. McEvers is currently lodged in the Central Regional Jail after being arraigned before Braxton County Magistrate Beth Smith. McEvers bond stemming from the controlled drug buys was set at $75,000, cash only. She was arraigned before Magistrate David Singleton following her Friday arrest where she faces an additional $75,000 cash only bond.

James Stewart was arraigned before Magistrate Singleton. His bond was also set at $75,000 cash only.

Jones' bond was set at $10,000 cash only following his arrest in Gilmer County. All three were still incarcerated in the CRJ at press-time.

Careers in Education students excel in Educators Rising event

By Shirley Shuman

Thirteen BCBS students from Sharon Desper's Careers in Education competed in the Educators Rising Spring Competition and Convention last week. Eleven of those earned trophies. Four earned first place trophies, two received second, and two third. This was Braxton's first participation in this competition.

As their instructor, Desper was extremely pleased with the results of her students' work. She emphasized that her students had never competed in Educators Rising Spring Competition and said, "So we were a little nervous going in." Continuing to explain one reason for the nervousness, she noted, "We had never seen these events before and had to teach ourselves how to do them."

She expressed her reaction to the results of her students' hard work. "It was shocking and gratifying to have won so many events. Braxton owned that podium."

Earning first place trophies were Erica

Nicholson, Paxton Conley, and Haley Morris in Ethical Dilemma; Jeffrey Evans in Exploring Non-Core Subjects; Emma Hardway and Emma Flinn in Inside Our School and Tyler Garrett in Impromptu Lesson.

Second place trophies went to Sarah Davis in Children's Literature and Kaylee Criner in Job Interview. Hayden Lemon in Lesson Planning and Delivery (Humanities) placed third, and Nicole Bramble placed third in Children's Literature.

Welding seniors tour Ohio sites related to career

By Shirley Shuman

On Monday, March 21, senior welding students from instructor Chris Cunningham's welding classes toured two sites in Ohio to observe various activities related to welding. Their first stop was at Lincoln Electric in Cleveland Ohio. They also stopped at Lakeside Community College where they actually participated in a welding class.

Lincoln Electric, established in 1895, has grown from a small company owned by two brothers to a premier company which offers, among its many facets, a highly regarded welding school. Instructor Cunningham referred to it as "the best welding school in the country" and explained that admission has only two requirements. Prospective students must be 18 and must pass the company's welding test.

The welding instructor, asked whether he felt the trip was a success, responded with a definite "Yes" and went on to explain one of the main purposes of the trip.

"I wanted their eyes to be opened to the fact that there are plenty of opportunities for them t h e in other areas," he said.

Touring Lincoln Electric proved to be a fascinating experience for most of the students making the trip. Anthony Godwin said the trip was definitely worthwhile "just for the experience we got." He added, "I've never seen such an amazing place [as Lincoln Electric]. Just seeing where I can go with welding, and all that we can do." Godwin was especially interested in the visual welding machine. "They had a visual welding machine, a kind of video game," he noted. Godwin also enjoyed stopping at Lakeland Community College.

Tristan Glover called the stop at Lakeland Community College "the best part of the trip." In addition to listening to a classroom lecture by Braxton native Ryan Eubanks, Glover said they "got to weld with a n o t h e r friend" in college's welding lab. Regarding the whole trip, this student said he was most impressed by "how much stuff we've missed out on, like the virtual reality computer so we can see what we're working on."

What impressed Chasen Nottingham most was "watching everything and how they go together, how they made the welding and then saw it in use." The most valuable part of the trip for Nottingham was visiting Lakeside Community College. "The instructor showed how they weld up there. It was also more hands on, and the instructor was

Town of Sutton to do away with parking meters

One of the main topics of discussion at the Sutton Town Council's most recent meeting on March 24 resulted in the elimination of parking meters in the downtown area. Councilwoman Beth Atkins updated the council on the status of parking meters in town. Currently there are 60 parking meters throughout town with the possibility of having up to 90 spots available. Council discussed removing the meters and possibly doing some type of art work on the poles. Atkins stated she had spoken with Bill Hopen and he has six sculptures that would fit on the poles along the street in front of his studio. Council discussed different options to get the poles decorated. Jon Crum made the motion to do away with the parking meters in town and develop an artistic design plan for their replacement. Steve Facemire seconded the motion. The council approved the motion unanimously.

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 pm by Mayor JD Hoover and the prayer was led by Catherine Hoover.

Mayor Hoover opened the meeting by recognizing Municipal Clerk Robin Smith for her hard work and going above and beyond her job. He also welcomed new council member Jon Crum to the meeting.

Mayor Hoover noted the work on getting the police department back into service was ongoing and progressing well.

Beth Atkins reminded council members of an upcoming webpage training on Monday, March 28 at 4:30 pm.

Council members discussed the bank account balances and getting the books reconciled for all accounts. Clerk Smith informed the council she was able to obtain the missing bank statements from the bank to work on the reconciliation. Some of the missing statements were from back in 2 0 1 5 . Once the program is upgraded, she is hoping to get the reconciliation complete.

Mayor Hoover discussed working with the Department of Highways to addressing the paving issues in the town on state owned roads. The town will soon be requesting bids for the town owned roads paving.

Police Chief Shane Boggs updated council on the work of the police department. He stated they had been very active with targeted enforcement in conjunction with the WVSP and BCSD. With assistance of the BCSD, Officer Jason Boggs was able to make an arrest on an individual who was a fugitive from Kanawha County with an active warrant. Police Chief Boggs stated they had been targeting more on Old Woman's Run Road due to consistent complaints of speeding in that area. He also noted all officers have completed their firearm qualification through the state police.

He discussed municipal court. Most individuals are coming into the office before actually appearing in court to pay fines for citations.

Steve Facemire commended Police Chief Boggs for his response to the stranded Doddridge County students. Their bus had broken down on the highway and he bought them ice cream while they waited for a replacement bus to take them on their trip to Disney. The positive response to the police department in general on social media was also recognized. Police Chief Boggs thanked the council and mayor for their Faith Byerly, daughter of Matthew and Sherry Byerly, plans to become an elementary school teacher. To obtain the education for her planned career, the seventh-place senior in this year's graduating class will attend Glenville State College. She explained both decisions.

"I decided to teach in elementary school because I've always liked little kids, and the idea of passing on to them what I know is interesting to me," Byerly said. Her choice of Glenville was made primarily because of its proximity to her home. "Glenville is close

As I See It

By Ed Given

Will the axe fall...

The action of our legislature continues to become clearer and I don't like what I am seeing. I read an interesting article last week in the Gazette. The WV Treasurer's office said it had approved 1155 nonpublic school vouchers since the application process opened March 1. Each of those applicants could receive $4,300. The vouchers shift public education dollars to private and home-schooling by giving money to individual families or private businesses that would have otherwise gone to the public school system. That is almost $5 million out of our educational system that by all accounts is already cash poor. And that's only the beginning.

I have said before this is a bad move. The middle class is the ones that will suffer the most. Statistically, this is where our leaders for tomorrow come from. Their education is vital to their success and that of our society. This is a terrible move that could very quickly get totally out of hand.

It's not a done deal... there is an ongoing lawsuit that contends the move violates the state constitution. That will have to be resolved before any checks are issued.

Way to go Lady Pioneers...

I watched the climb of the Glenville State University's Lady Pioneer Basketball team to national prominence. They are so deserving of recognition for their hard work. Brent Boggs does a nice job of that in his column this week. He also talks about GSU and its rise in the academic world. It's about time the rest of the state and beyond realize what a gem that Gilmer County institution is.

Brent, being the humble individual he is, didn't mention the important part he has played over the last two decades in preserving this gem. There were numerous attempts to cut or completely eliminate Glenville State. Brent has been their biggest ally. He fought for Glenville with a vengeance when it was warranted. Had it not been for Brent, I seriously doubt Glenville would have survived. GSU is lucky to have Brent on their team!

Parking meters...

You will note in a front-page article that the Town of Sutton is planning on doing away with their parking meters. This is not a new concept nor is it an easy one to make work. We often talked about the move when I was Mayor in Sutton. We even limited the downtown area to 2-hour parking to try to increase available parking for city patrons. The problem was the abuse. People who worked and lived in the downtown area blocked the meters so the intention of creating a convenient place to park for those who visit Sutton for business reasons never really materialized. We made a valid attempt to police the situation with moderate success. I found it amazing to what lengths people would go to circumvent the rules for their own personal gain. Almost all the spots around the courthouse were occupied daily by those who worked there, even though they had designated parking. The people who lived in the apartments were also problematic as they thought they should have parking at their door.

Yes, things have changed, but I will be surprised if the abuse of free parking is one of them...

Every Acre Counts

By Kevin Gregory

Introduction

We are in the middle of the largest species extinction event in recorded history. Over the last 40 years, we have lost nearly 40% of the earth's species. Why are we losing species at such an alarming rate? There are several major reasons ranging from climate change to loss of habitat to invasive species moving between continents. Species from songbirds to white-tail deer are being affected on an annual basis. Imagine standing in a forest in our county 125 years ago and seeing American Chestnut, White Oak, Red Oak and a Sugar Maple dominated landscape. It is estimated over 35% of the Appalachians were covered by American Chestnut, today they are at the extinction level due to disease. Once gone, they will never come back.

Many of us can remember hearing Bobwhite Quail calling throughout the springtime or the rapid heartbeat you felt after a Ruffed Grouse flush. Or we remember a warm summer evening setting on the porch listening to the local Eastern Whippoorwill, or maybe painting your initials on an Eastern Box Turtle to see if it returns to your place next year.

Each of these species has seen major decline over the last 40 years to the point the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources asks for residents to document their eastern box turtles and eastern whippoorwill encounters. They use this data to determine where pockets of these species still exist. Additionally, years and years of brush hogging and mowing fields for hay have drastically reduced the Monarch Butterfly population which uses the milkweed species for food and egg laying locations. We cannot stop our hay production - farmers are a declining population as well - but we can look at how we are using our land in areas that are not hay producing.

Just look at this!

A weekly photo of opinion in Braxton County... sometimes good and sometimes not so good.

Last week, the Braxton County Rotary Club delivered 150 "special treats" to WVU's Braxton County Memorial Hospital's staff. It was the Rotary's way of expressing their appreciation for the dedicated group of healthcare professionals and the services they provide the local community. The candy treats which were individually prepared and assembled by Rotarians each contained a special card. That card, titled "You Are Our Rotary Angels" contained this message, "Please enjoy this small token of our appreciation for all you do for our community. Your dedication and hard work, particularly in these trying times, has not gone unnoticed. You are truly Rotary Angels and we sincerely... Thank You for Your Service!" Pictured here are some members of the Braxton County Club and a portion of the treats donated to the entire Hospital staff.

Recognition...

Dear Ed,
I read that they are going to put a monument to Wesley Frame in the area of the courthouse.

I think that is all well and good. I approached the County Commission on the behalf of Laura McLaughlin, daughter of Brigadier General Kemp McLaughlin, United States Air Force about placing a monument to him on the courthouse lawns or in the courthouse. The family was going to foot all of the cost. I was told after sending letters to the county commission that if they did that everybody would want some kind of monument on the wall or on the courthouse lawn and the best they could do was allow us to put a memorial in

News from our Capitol

by Delegate Brent Boggs

Wow! Last Friday night, all West Virginians were Pioneers, as the Glenville State University Lady Pioneer basketball team won the NCAA Division 2 National Championship! What a wonderful and amazing accomplishment, which validates the great talent, hard work and coaching skills and philosophy, led by Head Coach Kim Stephens. Only days before the championship game, Coach Stephens was awarded the honor of being selected as NCAA Women's Basketball Coach of the Year.

The GSU Lady Pioneers accomplishments of the season and NCAA tournament week are even more amazing when you consider the enrollment of GSU compared to the schools they defeated in the NCAA Elite Eight tournament:

Quarterfinals: West Texas A&M (Canyon, TX) 10,000 students
Semifinals: Grand Valley University (Grand Rapids, Michigan) 25,000 students

Finals: Western Washington University (Bellingham, WA) 16,000 students

National champion: Glenville State University 1,600 students

All along the way, the support from students and GSU fans that turned out and traveled to the tournament and tuned-in on radio and TV was nothing short of amazing. I appreciate Coach Stephens giving a shout-out to the fans, recognizing them as the team's "sixth man". Also, several tournament, team and individual records were eclipsed by this Pioneer team throughout the 35-1 season. Making it even more special, 2022 is the 150th anniversary of the school's founding; and Glenville State was granted university status on February 22 by the Legislature during the just completed session.

The team arrived back home late Saturday night, picking up a WV State Police escort at the State line. By the time they arrived at Burnsville, a sizable crowd gathered, picking up a long and loud convoy of supporters all the way to the Waco Center, where they were met with thunderous cheers, hugs, and lots of keepsake photos.

There is much going on in the world right now. Problems abound, at home and abroad. But this shining moment, earned by the hard work and dedication of the Lady Pioneers is a time for GSU, Glenville, Gilmer County, Glenville State alumni, central West Virginia, and our entire State to celebrate. I have always been proud to be a graduate of Glenville State. I met my wife, Jean, on campus. I've been honored to represent Gilmer County and GSU in the Legislature for over a quarter century, building relationships for a lifetime. I am thrilled that GSU has turned the corner on facilities and academics, strengthening existing programs while offering new programs in areas of need for our State and region. The university is a leader in music and the arts. Good things are happening at GSU that benefit all West Virginians, now and into the future. You don't have to be the biggest to be the best.

As the Governor continues to pour over the avalanche of completed legislation as it's enrolled and sent to his desk, I'm excited that he signed two bills last week that will enhance the margin for safety and well-being of special needs kids in our schools. First, the Governor signed SB 261, mandating more frequency and intentional review of video from special needs classrooms. The cameras were mandated a few sessions ago by the Legislature. SB 261 requires principals to also turn over the video recordings to investigators and attorneys for students and parents. This law further protects the classroom teachers from false claims of wrongdoing, while providing another layer of protections and safety for kids and their families.

Another bill, HB 4600, makes it a felony for a person in a position of trust to abuse a disabled child verbally or physically. It further makes it a felony penalty to fail to report abuse if it is witnessed. Previously, both offenses were classified as misdemeanor offenses.

West Virginia is blessed with outstanding and dedicated teachers and aids. Those teaching special needs students have chosen a field that is their professional calling. It is extremely rewarding, personally and professionally, but not without chal-enough that I can come home every weekend and do some of the stuff I normally do, like go to church,” she added.

Byerly’s interest in education as a career may have influenced her choice of favorite teacher. “Although I have several ‘favorite’ teachers, if I have to choose only one, it is Mrs. [Sharon] Desper. I loved her class because she always tried to teach us in ways we’d understand better. Also, she always tried to understand us.”

Desper teaches the Careers in Education cluster.

Art is Byerly’s favorite class. “It is the most interesting,” she noted, “and it has a lot of hands-on stuff. I like that.”

She explained she isn’t involved in many activities at school because she feels she doesn’t have time. “I work at KFC/Taco Bell,” she said, “and I’m involved in church.” In her free time, Byerly “reads a lot and goes to church.” She prefers fantasy and action books.

This young woman’s choice of career appears related to her choice of what has made the greatest impact on her education. “The greatest impact has come from my teachers in general, the way teachers present everything to make it easier to learn,” she explained her choice. Faith Eberly plans someday to be one of those teachers.

support on getting the department started again and allowing him to serve the community.

Catherine Hoover thanked the town employees for their work on cleaning up the dump site and getting it reclaimed and cleared.

Council discussed the quotes received on replacing the lighting in the municipal building. Jon Crum questioned the details of the quotes. Council decided to table action until better details could be received from the contractor.

Beth Atkins discussed the need for having an exterminator coming into the building to check for insects and mice. She made a motion and Steve Facemire seconded it to advertise for estimates from an exterminator to address issues. The council approved the motion.

Becky Conrad spoke to the council on behalf of the Sutton Community Development Corporation. The SCDC will continue to be responsible for the Farmers Market. The market manager will work with town council and the SCDC. She stated they would like to form a committee for the market and asked that a council member sit on that committee. Conrad presented the council with a Memorandum of Understanding for the Farmers Market. It included the SCDC would be responsible to pay the insurance and the market manager. They will assemble the committee and continue with fundraising for the market. The town will be responsible to allow the market to continue at no cost to the SCDS, pay for the porta potty, and keep the property maintained. Council wants to take time to review the MOU and will take action on it at the next meeting.

Conrad informed council the SCDC recommends the flower pots be turned over to Judy’s Garden Club and Master Gardeners.

Conrad also discussed the stage at market area. She asked for permission to allow the market manager to work on the stage and get the railings back into place. On a motion by Steve Facemire and second by Beth Atkins, the council agreed to the flower arrangement and work on the stage.

Council discussed the updates to the fee schedule for citations. The updates reflect changes in the state code by legislation. Recorder Laurel Petolicchio made the motion and Steve Facemire seconded to approve the new fee schedule. The motion passed with Jon Crum voting against the changes.

The council briefly discussed the storm drain contract. Council is still waiting to hear from Jim Marshall with Region VII on the status of the funding request. They also discussed looking into other options to get the project completed.

Shane Brown discussed his non-profit program Set Apart. This program provides life skills training to young men ages 18-24. It is an 18 month program to teach these individuals not only life skills but trade skills such as carpentry, electrical, and plumbing. The program works in the community finding projects through churches and businesses to provide the participants hands on learning experiences. He is requesting the support of the council as he works toward finding a location and starting the program.

Council approved the minutes of the March 10 regular meeting, March 15 work session, and March 18 special meeting minutes with corrections on a motion by Steve Facemire and a second by Robin Dolan. The correction was to show the March 18 special meeting as in recess until the April 19 budget special meeting at 1:00 pm.

On motion by Steve Facemire and a second by Jon Crum, the council approved the payment of bills.

The council also approved the appointing Beth Atkins as library trustee on a motion by Steve Facemire and a second by Recorder Laurel Petolicchio.

Council discussed the burned out buildings that were to be used as a city park. On a motion by Catherine Hoover and second by Jon Crum, to turn the property back over to Agatha Tinney as per the original agreement with Craig Smith.

Council went into executive session at 7:48 discuss personnel issues. They reconvened at 8:19 pm. The meeting adjourned at 8:20 pm. The next regular meeting is scheduled for April 14 at 6:00 pm.

to the loss of poult rearing habitat. Nationwide, the wild turkey population is taking major hits as predator numbers increase and habitat decreases. Whitetail deer stood at their highest level in the 1990s. While the deer numbers today are still in good shape the fact that Epizootic Hemorrhagic Disease (EHD) and Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) are now prevalent point to new environmental conditions which raise concern. In order for our whitetail to have a chance at fighting off these diseases, our deer and wildlife require a healthy habitat to support them year around.

What is the “so what” of all this bad news? The “so what” is through conservation (hunting, fishing and habitat improvements) we can turn much of this species loss around. Additionally, there are state and federal programs which will help landowners cost share their efforts. You can receive funding for planting pollinator plots, thinning your timber, removing invasive species, etc....

This series of articles will focus on a variety of outdoor activities, programs, practices, and conservation updates to help you become a contributor and not just a consumer of our wildlife habitat. Whether you own 1 or 1000 acres, you can apply habitat solutions and practices even in your backyard to assist our wildlife. So please tune in and see what you can do or how you can help. I would be willing to bet that if the subject was examined, General McLaughlin was probably the highest ranking and most decorated military member ever to come out of Braxton County. He grew up on my farm in Strange Creek. You can Google his record. Four distinguished flying crosses. Lead pilot in the bloodiest air battle in the history of the world, Black Thursday. He bombed Hitler’s heavy water plant. He was bombing flying a B-17 on D-Day. He was dropping bombs during the African invasion. He started the first Air National Guard wing in West Virginia. It was at Martinsburg. All that and he wrote the history of the Mighty Eighth Air Force. He crashed landed in a cemetery in Scotland knocking over tombstones and figuring they would be lynched. Instead, the locals came out with scotch whiskey and they all got roaring drunk. He also saw combat in Korea flying P 51 mustangs.

Getting Close to God

All of us at one time or another has wanted to get closer to someone. Parents want to get closer to their children Children want to get closer to parents Husbands want to get closer to their wives Wives want to get closer to their husbands Brothers want to get closer to brothers Sisters want to get closer to sisters We do this because we feel a need in our lives to be surrounded by sound people, or we realize that time is quickly pass away. All of humanity needs and wants to have a solid connection of people in our lives, this is something that I believe that we inherit, sometimes from our parents but more so than that I believe we inherit it from our creator when we become a living soul. Gen 2:7 7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. KJV Gen 1:26-27 26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. 27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. Sometimes we want to get closer to people, and we really want to and need to but because our relationships sometimes are strained it is hard to make the connection and maybe we are never able to repair that relationship. In the same way our relationship with God can become strained, not because God has moved or did something to us that is unfair or what we feel is not right, it is because we have moved away from God Luke 15:11-13 11 And he said, A certain man had two sons: 12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. 13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. KJV Isa 59:1-2 59:1 Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: 2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. God is always willing and ready to start a relationship with us. John 3:16-17 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world: but that the world through him might be saved. KJV God is always ready and willing to take us back Eph 4:32 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. KJV 2 Peter 3:9 9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. Luke 15:20-24 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. 22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: 23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and be merry: 24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. What do we need to do 1. realize whose image we are made after 2. we need to realize how much God loves us 3. we need to appreciate everything that God has done for us 2 Chron 7:14-15 14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. Humble, pray, seek and turn

By : PAT RIDPATH

This is to officially announce the death of my sister, Mary Ann Bucklew, at Ruby Memorial Hospital, Hospice Unit, on March 19, 2022, (which is the birthdate of her late husband, George M. Bucklew).

Mary Ann moved from her home in Burnsville in 2005 and spent the rest of her life at an apartment on South Florida Street, about two blocks from me. She loved that apartment so much, and eventually got helpers from Central Area Agency for the Aging here in Buckhannon to help her with light housework and shopping.

Mary Ann was brought into this world on August 26, 1936. Her parents were Harry V. and Allegra Louisa (McNemar) Wiant who preceded her in death; Harry died August 18, 1984, and Allegra died September 29, 1967.

Time To Mow Again

Mowing season is around the corner.

The grass is getting green and will have to be mowed before long. Our weather is going back and forth from winter to spring but the warmer days are making the grass grow. We have a lot of property here to keep up with. I freeze a bottle of water for hubby to take in his riding mower and the new black top that he got last summer helps keep the hot sun off him. As the icy water melts he can have refreshing ice water.

We had a good revival at Rosedale Baptist. Good attendance every night. Good preachers and good singers. Our church has been blessed with a lot of talent. Some of us are still doing the Drive- In Church thing. There is a bad virus going around now called Rhinovirus. It is hard to get rid of and the cough lingers. Maybe one of these days, the viruses will all get out of here.

We were surprised to get up to a covering of snow this morning and it was so cold. It was only 29 degrees at 7:00 am. Back to winter clothes and a warm winter coat. I didn't make it out because it was slick out back and down the ramp. I can't take a chance on falling. Cold temps make my sinus trouble and my arthritis worse. We are suppose to have a warm day coming up this week. I will follow doctor's orders to get up, get dressed up and show up. I ride along to town when we have to go shopping. We got the ham in here for Easter and it is on ice. My parents had their own sugar cured hams and they smoked some of them. I remember seeing smoked ones hanging from hooks at the ceiling, up in the cellar house. Most people had a cellar and a cellar house up over it back then.

There was a table against the wall where they sugar cured meats. A lot of people are going back to raising their own meats. A friend of mine called me today and was telling me of raising rabbits and chickens and they have canned and frozen deer meat. Mom had chickens and rabbits. There weren't any deer around when I was growing up but Dad butchered hogs. My Stewart grandparents had beef hogs, chickens, sheep, and a few turkeys. Mom didn't like the taste of mutton. Dad brought down a mess of it one time and she didn't like it. The beef roast sure was good. He had helped Grandpa Stewart butcher and they gave him a roast. I will wrap this up for this time. Stay safe and take care. Gilmer Co. is doing good. According to the Charleston paper, there are no known cases of Covid 19 right now. Way to go Gilmer.

God bless and keep you in his care.

Judy's Garden Club highlights local business and BCHS Greenhouse

A special National Garden Club (NGC) event will be held at the Greenbrier in early May 2023. Garden Club members from across the United States will enjoy being hosted by the National Garden Club and West Virginia Garden clubs. Brenda Moore, WVGC member, will be installed as the President of National Garden Clubs during the convention, which is the reason for choosing WV as the convention location. The desire to highlight WV products and experiences during this national convention led to Brenda Moore's request to feature Fiesta bowls as part of the table centerpieces during one of the luncheons. Pat McPherson, President of Judy's Garden Club, Appalachian District, contacted Jeannie

Bragg, manager at the Everything Fiesta Store in Flatwoods WV. Following an official written email request from Moore, arrangements were made to have 60 XL bowls available as a charitable donation for the NGC Convention. The bowls have been gathered and will be delivered by JGC members to Moore at the WVGC Conference in April in plenty of time for them to be transformed into amazing centerpieces. West Virginia Garden Clubs are very appreciative for the generosity of the Fiesta management to provide the bowls promoting one of the many beautiful WV products that will be on display during the 2023 NGC Conference.

Weather issues on March 12, forced Judy's Garden Club to reschedule the Braxton County Highschool greenhouse tour. Unfortunately, some JGC members were not able to attend the new tour date but the ones that did were impressed with the facility and the tour. Josh Porto led the group explaining the features the greenhouse has to offer to the BCHS students and how the public will enjoy the plants grown there. The process of establishing this greenhouse has been an effort involving a variety of folks and will greatly benefit the community.

The Landmark Studio for the Arts is back! After a two-year hiatus, courtesy of safety precautions for the multiple strains of the Corona Virus, the Landmark Youth Theatre Ensemble will be performing, by special permission, Disney's Beauty and the Beast.

Is that Belle's dress?!

Beauty and the Beast, the first Disney title to be adapted into a stage production, is a Disney stage musical with music by Alan Menken, lyrics by Howard Ashman and Tim Rice, and a book by Linda Woolverton.

Once upon a time, a selfish, mean, and arrogant young prince, and all of his castle's servants, are cursed by a wicked sorceress, who turns the prince into an ugly beast until he learns to love and be loved in return. The beastly prince meets Belle, a village girl, who attempts to change the prince's behavior. You'll have to make reservations to see the show and learn what happens next!

The Landmark Studio production of Disney's Beauty and the Beast is directed by Becky Conrad, produced by Tim Hoover, with Technical Director/Choreographer Jamie Jarvis, and Musical Director Lydia Gibson.

An enthusiastic great number of young aspiring actors took part in the auditions, both live and virtually, held March 18 & 19, 2022. Volunteers are always needed for the Landmark's network of support. One may meet the cast members as they are featured on the Landmark Studio's Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/Landmarkstudioforthearts>

The Landmark Studio for the Arts is housed in a building that was formerly an Episcopal Church. The building was purchased in the 1980s by Bill Hopen and Olga Gioulis, and they donated the building to "provide a venue for art and cultural events in Sutton that can be enjoyed by all citizens of the county and surrounding areas." At first, performances took place around the pulpit, until the stage was built. The 1880s building still has much of the original woodwork and beautiful stained-glass windows.

The Landmark Studio for the Arts is managed by an all-volunteer Board of Directors, and the majority of productions are presented by volunteer artistic directors, actors, and a network of supportive service volunteers. The Land-

Middle school sixth-grade students hold literacy fair

By Shirley Shuman

From 4 to 6 p.m. Tuesday afternoon, the middle school cafeteria was the venue for a literacy fair developed and presented by English teacher James King's sixth grade students. The purpose of the fair, King explained, was "the promotion of famous authors and books to get more people to read those books."

A total of 80 projects—41 individual and 40 partnered, were on display during the two hour fair. The project involved serious preparation and the instructor pointed out that it covered many, if not most, of the state's objectives for a sixth grade English class.

For example, the first step was a paper based on research of an assigned author. Each individual student conducted research on the author and wrote an essay developed on the results of the research. That essay, of course, was expected to be written using correct grammar and mechanics of writing as well as containing proper citation of sources.

Next, each student or pair developed a display board and a PowerPoint which illustrated highlights of the writers' lives and their works. These writers ranged from English poets such as Samuel Taylor Coleridge and John Keats through Herman Melville, Robert Frost, Edgar Allan Poe, John Steinbeck, Ernest Hemingway and more to authors such as Roald Dahl, Stephanie Myers, and Rick Riordan. Most students appeared to find the writers they researched interesting.

One student, Avah Mollohan, and her partner, Natalie Garrett, completed research on Stephen King. Mollohan said that she had never read any of King's works and knew nothing about him before they began their work. She did note, "From what we learned about him, his books sound like really good books."

The most difficult aspect of the paper for the two girls, according to Mollohan, "was the works-cited page. The most difficult part of the project, she felt, was "probably the board." She did indicate that they learned how to cite sources and how to develop a long-term project as well as quite a bit about Stephen King.

Instructor King is definitely pleased with the results of this project for his sixth-grade students. He was also happy with the turnout of individuals who came to view the projects. "We had many parents and younger students along with several students stopping by on their way to sports practices." He was especially happy to see the younger students because they are a big part of the intended audience.

Phebe Shanhan promoted Gary Paulsen to her peers.

Morgan Simons chose J.R.R. Tolkien.

Evan Burnham chose Mark Twain for his project.

Nevaeh Flint learned about William Shakespeare.

Nevaeh Craft chose John Keats.

Jamie Spurlock and Brady Dever teamed up to promote Rick Riordan Jr.

Emma Moore presented Suzanne Collins for her literacy fair project.

Chase Hamner presented Ted Hughes to his peers.

Cassidy G Coyer and Alexander C Dennison promoted Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Billy Jo Fraley and Liam Harman learned about Herman Melville.

Lady Eagles softball team exhibits definite improvement

The BCHS softball team was 1-2 last week, but the players hit well and almost had a successful comeback in the second game of the week. Braxton lost 12-2 to Roane, almost came back against Nicholas, and outscored South Harrison 18-10. An unfortunate circumstance may have contributed to Braxton's problems at Roane Tuesday. Coach

Amanda Gum explained that because of a game time mix-up, the Lady Eagles were not allowed to warm up at all. The main highlight of the game, Coach Gum pointed out, was Kayleigh Mays hitting a double and getting an RBI. Rylan Prunty drove in Braxton's other run. Pitching for the Lady Eagles, Brooklyn Sargent struck out one. In a 7-6 loss to Nicholas, Braxton's girls found themselves down 7-0 going into the seventh inning. Coach Gum said that her players started to hit and battled back to get close, "but it just wasn't enough." In that game, Lacie Wright and Emmalee Jarvis each had doubles and drove in one run each. Sargent and Savannah Bender each had one hit. Sargent had two RBIs, Bender one. On the mound for Braxton, Sargent had five strikeouts and issued only one walk.

Looking at the game against Nicholas and the fact that the Lady Eagles started hitting in the seventh and came up with six runs, Coach Gum commented that she and her coaching staff "have had the conversation of jumping on teams early instead of waiting until we're down to start hitting." She added, "It's a work in progress, but I think the girls are starting to gain confidence at the plate."

Braxton's win against South Harrison began as Jarvis started Doddridge tonight and Wednesday they play Greenbrier West. These games are also home games and begin at 5:30 p.m. Thursday they go to Calhoun for a 5 p.m game.

mind that it was gone." Against South Harrison, all Lady Eagles in the starting lineup had at least one hit. In that game, Braxton went into the bottom of the sixth inning leading 14-2. "At that point," Coach Gum, "[Braxton's] fielding was not the strongest in this inning, and South Harrison and South Harrison strung some hits together to allow them to score eight runs." After that, the coach indicated, her players "buckled down and pulled out the victory." Sargent, pitching for Braxton, struck out nine.

Pleased with her team's progress, Coach Gum said that they "are gaining confidence and positive attitudes with every game." She's hoping, she continued, that "this continues and we hit our peak at the perfect time of the season."

Last night, the Lady Eagles hosted Herbert Hoover. They have a doubleheader against Doddridge tonight and Wednesday they play Greenbrier West. These games are also home games and begin at 5:30 p.m. Thursday they go to Calhoun for a 5 p.m game.

KITTY KORNER:

Affordable, Adoptable, Fixed Feline Friends

Just One Generation cat rescue was formed in 2013 to help address the severe feline overpopulation problem in our area. In the years since, our program has been adapted based, in part, on our available resources and help .

Presently, our priorities are to serve as an emergency placement option for ownerless cats and kittens that are sick, injured, or endangered in their present location.

We also offer spay/neuter assistance for community residents who need help to see that their pets are not contributing to this problem.

We have limited space and funds available, and we are dependent on the support of our community and the willingness of people to open their hearts and homes to our animals.

All of our adoptable cats and kittens are social, have been vaccinated, dewormed, and received topical flea protection. Spay/neuter/rabies is included with our modest adoption fee , and older kittens and cats may already be done at the time of placement.

This week we feature two special cats recently turned in to Just One Generation that are looking for new homes. More adoptable animals can be viewed on petfinder.com by entering a search for CATS at location 26623, or by LIKING our Facebook page.

Additional details or information can be obtained by calling Sally Stewart at 304-364-4136.

This week, we have several great kittens available, any of which would make a wonderful addition to your family.

SALEM: Two and a half year old spayed female. Also called a “polydactyl” or “Hemingway cat” she has six toes on each front paw. Salem was found pregnant and abandoned by a local family who took her in until her kittens were raised and placed. They would have kept her except that the other cats in the household were not happy and she was the object of their bullying. Very sweet.

Y O S E M I T E (“YoYo”): A senior Maine Coon mix, YoYo was the beloved indoor pet of a local resident for most of his life. When the owner died 6 months ago, he was left homeless, and remained on his own until a Good Samaritan was able to coax him to get close enough to secure him and bring him to us for placement.

Burnsville Community Educational Outreach Service Club meeting

The Burnsville Community Educational Outreach Service Club met March 9, 2022 at the Mayor's Office in Burnsville with Diane Hosey Hostess. The meeting was called to order by President Betty Carson with roll call and flag pledge by all.

For meditations Margie Crislip read two poems entitled “If You Love Me” and “Signs of The Times”.

Secretary and Treasurer Shirley Kelley read the minutes from the February meeting and reported on the worth of the club. Both were approved as read.

There were no committee reports but some friends were reported sick. There was no Business to take care of so Beverley Monroe gave a brief history of the CEOS. We have changed the name over the years and have gone from seven clubs in the county down to two. We would welcome some new members --- if you have a couple hours on the 2nd Wednesday of the month spend them with us!

Betty Carson presented the lesson this month on “Danske Dandridge: The Poet Who Wrote of West Virginia”. She published garden writings, poetry and books. Her love of West Virginia, deep appreciation for her farm and gardens, and awareness of unique human existence were wavering.

Those present and not mentioned above are Pat Drake, Jeannette Dean and Bobbie Bragg.

The next meeting will be April 13th, 10am at the Burnsville Mayor's Office.

BCHS Eagles' baseball team raises season record to 4-1

The Eagles lost their first game last week to Herbert Hoover but beat both Roane and South Harrison later in the week.

On Monday Herbert Hoover outscored Braxton 20-12. The Eagles went up 4-0 in the top of the first, but, Coach Jamie Lemon pointed out, "made too many mistakes to win. Isaiah Mowery started on the mound for Braxton. He struck out one and walked eight. Logan Baldwin went in as the reliever and finished the game. Baldwin gave up seven runs while walking five. He struck out five.

The three leading hitters for the Eagles in the Hoover game were Adam Dobbins, Braydon Helmick, and Logan Baldwin. Dobbins was 2 for 2 with one RBI. Helmick, 2 for 3, drove in two runs, and Baldwin, 2 for 5, had 5 RBIs. Baldwin's hits included a bases-clearing double.

Braxton defeated Roane 8-2 Tuesday evening. Tyler Baldwin pitched what Coach Lemon termed "a great game" as he struck out two and gave up only one earned run. The Eagles' coach was especially happy with two other elements of the win over Roane—the fact that the team committed only one error and that they had 13 hits.

That game was tied 2-2 going into the seventh inning. Coach Lemon explained that Roane's top pitcher had held the Eagles up to that point but with a pitching change, Braxton started hitting and scored six runs in the top of the seventh. "They played well in that game," the coach said. "In addition to strong hitting, the Eagles played great defense."

Tyler Baldwin led the hitting against Roane with a 3-5 performance at the plate and two RBIs. Dobbins was 2 for 4 with one RBI, and Colton Kniceley 2 for 4 with two RBIs.

With Kolton Kniceley on the mound, Braxton defeated South Harrison 9-5 Thursday. Coach Lemon pointed out that the Eagles were up 9-2 in the bottom of the seventh. South Harrison had runners on first and second with two outs. "Then Kniceley threw the only bad pitch he threw in the game. He threw a curve ball in the middle of the plate, and the batter slammed it," he explained. Kniceley pitched the complete game with ten strikeouts and gave up only four earned runs.

Leading hitters against South Harrison included Kniceley who was 2 for 3 with an RBI. Logan Baldwin, 2 for 4, drove in one run and Beau Liston, 1 for 3, accounted for another. Mowery, 2 for 3, had an RBI.

Coach Lemon summarized the team's performance in the last few games. "We're playing pretty decent," he said. "We're hitting the ball well but just hitting in streaks. The pitching has been excellent."

Tonight the Eagles are scheduled to play Doddridge at home and tomorrow night they host Fairmont Senior. They travel to Calhoun Thursday and to Robert C. Byrd Friday. Saturday they have a home game against Philip Barbour at 1 p.m.

Braxton County Soccer Club opening day for the Spring Season is April 2nd

Watching our kids try something new is fun! Whether it's an hour of four-year-olds running, giggling, and kicking the ball or trained teens or soon to be teens passing and setting up their attack.

Parents and family members love to watch this physical and mental growth in their player. We can't help but feel a bit of pride when our player does well, maybe scoring a goal or making a great defensive play.

We are also there to support our player when they are frustrated or saddened about their performance.

We teach our players, in those moments, that teamwork and trying your best are more important than the points on the scorebook.

We will continue to watch them grow and continue to sign up each season.

Girls place in several events as BCHS track team competes at Buckhannon Upshur for first meet of the season

Coach Robert Lloyd said that he felt the track teams' competition at Buckhannon Upshur last Tuesday "gives us a great starting point."

In that meet, Braxton girls placed in six different events. Bethany Payne placed in three events while Laura Cain and Heidi Payne each placed in two..

Payne finished fourth in the 200 meter dash and second in the 400 meter dash. In the high jump she placed third. Heidi Payne was fifth in the high jump and also in the 3200 meter run. Laura Cain finished third in the 3200 and also in the 1600. Emily Garrett placed sixth in the 300 meter hurdles.

For the boys, the 4 X 100 meter relay team of Russell Bramble, Jeremy Kelly, Mason O'Dell and Travis Putnam placed sixth.
